

PAUL MUGUET

Paul Muguet, Mexico City, 2013

Paul Muguet was born in 1975 in Mexico City, Mexico.

To create his works of art, Muguet utilizes three fields of research: the written word, color, and objects.

Muguet interweaves everyday objects into his works because they raise the notions of things as vehicles of emotional and reflexive communication, as well as to redefine our relationship with the things that surround us and how we name them.

In parallel, his pictorial works seek to activate our reading of his pieces by exposing the expressive power of color and deliberately employing a formal purity to question the relationship between the object and the painting.

Paul Muguet currently lives and works in Mexico City.
